2018 Mission Team Leader Training

BASIC MISSION TEAM LEADERSHIP TRAINING

Effective team leader training can make the difference between a successful mission and an experience better forgotten. Prepared team leaders have the tools, insight and knowledge to successfully lead groups in a mission experience that glorifies God through service done effectively.

TRAINING TOPICS INCLUDE:

- Finding and Selecting a Destination, a Host, and a Mission Project
- Gathering a Team – Promoting
- Planning the Trip – Details!
- Budgeting and Raising Money
- Team Orientation – Clear Expectations
- Insurance and Legal Concerns
- Returning Home and Reporting – Inspiring your congregation!
- Special Issues regarding International Trips
- Youth and Family Trip Issues, including Safe Sanctuaries Policies, Releases, and Background Checks
- Travel Issues

NETWORKING!

Inspiring potential leaders, identifying potential partners, discovering needs, welcoming interested individuals, communicating opportunities, developing resources, cultivating potential hosts, sharing ideas, joys and challenges, building networks, celebrating outcomes. Wow!

BTW – Experienced leaders and previous attendees are invited to come and participate. (No cost, but you still get lunch!) Experienced leaders have a lot to contribute in a session like this one.

All Leader Training Workshops are 9 AM – 1 PM, and include a light networking lunch. There is a $10 fee (payable at the workshop), which includes one Team Leader Manual and lunch. Two (or three or four) participants per congregation would be GREAT(!) and provides much greater mission energy and leadership.
