Good Friday:

1. Stations booklet, print on cardstock, cut out and tie together.
2. People are invited to complete the stations at any point during the day.

Sunrise:

1. Reflection by self out in nature somewhere on what it meant to find the tomb empty early in the morning.

Easter Basket:

1. Cardstock quote Matthew 28.5-6
2. Peeps in bag- keep one/leave one for a neighbor
3. Labyrinth Opening Prayer
4. Easter Eggs with Scripture- invite each home to open one egg at a time and read the scripture as you read it out loud. After each scripture read a section of ‘Doubters Broken Happy” by Dale Fredrickson. Ask a question and leave time for reflection

5. Offering
6. Prayer Requests
7. Easter Prayer as you open the Magic Cross(preprepared)
8. Origami Butterfly- invite everyone to hold their butterfly, a symbol of new life, as you read Matthew 28.5-6 again.

*I may also invite everyone to work on creating a symbol of Easter at home and sharing a picture through email/social media to show our connection in the resurrection.
Haven't flushed this out yet.
