

ARIZONA FAITH NETWORK

Rev. Katie Sexton-Wood, Executive Director

The mission of Arizona Faith Network (AFN) is to invite people into meaningful relationships, shared prayer, and dialogue rooted in our faith traditions, and actions that influence public awareness, engagement, and policy. We are people of faith uniting to create positive change for the common good.

As a nonprofit, we work to engage, educate and empower the faith-based community. We do this work through interfaith relationship building, dialogue, and social justice action. AFN works with diverse religious traditions and United Methodist churches throughout Arizona to advocate for issues surrounding racism, economic inequality, climate change, asylum or immigration concerns, mass incarceration, and religious intolerance or other hatred or systemic injustice. AFN has worked hard to establish authentic, trustworthy interfaith relationships that lead to action to make Arizona stronger. Since 1948 we have impacted the Arizona community by providing the opportunity for local collaboration, theological dialogue, learning opportunities, and social justice advocacy.

You are invited to become a partner of Arizona Faith Network and become active in the work of social justice, activism, interfaith dialogue, and community building. Join today by visiting www.arizonafaithnetwork.org.
